4.0 DETAILS OF DECISION MAKING FUNCTIONS

Local Laws and policies applying to this Council's district only, are made by Council under the Local Government Act 1995 {s3.11 to 3.17}.

Council may provide that contravention of a provision of the local law is an offence, and may provide for penalties to be imposed {s3.1 0}.

4.1 Procedure for Making Local Laws

In making a local law a local government is to follow the procedure described in this section, in the sequence in which it is described.

At a council meeting the person presiding is to give notice to the meeting of the purpose and effect of the proposed local law in the prescribed manner

The local government is to -

- a) give Statewide public notice stating that -
  - (i) the local government proposes to make a local law the purpose and effect of which is summarized in the notice;
  - (ii) a copy of the proposed local law may be inspected or obtained at any place specified in the notice; and
  - (iii) submissions about the proposed local law may be made to the local government before a day to be specified in the notice, being a day that is not less than six (6) weeks after the notice is given;

- b) as soon as the notice is given, give a copy of the proposed local law and a copy of the notice to the Minister and, and if another Minister administers the Act under which the local law is proposed to be made, to that other Minister; and
- c) Provide a copy of the proposed local law, in accordance with the notice, to any person requesting it.

A notice under subsection (3) is also to be published and exhibited as if it were a local public notice.

After the last day for submissions, the local government is to consider any submissions made and may pass the local law* as proposed or make a local law* that is not significantly different from what was proposed.

**Absolute majority required..*

After making the local law, the local government is to publish it in the Gazette and give a copy of it to the Ministers and, if another Minister administers the Act under which the local law is proposed to be made, to that other Minister.

After the local law has been published in the Gazette the local government is to give local public notice -

- a) stating the title of the Local Law;
- b) summarizing the purpose and effect of the local law (specifying the day on which it comes into operation); and;
- c) advising that copies of the local law may be inspected or obtained from the local government's office.

The Minister may give directions to local governments requiring them to provide to the Parliament copies of local laws they have made and any explanatory or other material relating to them.

In this section -

making in relation to a local law, includes making a local law to amend the text of, or repeal, a local law.
